

The first issue of Migrant_tj has come off the press

Rakhmon Ulmasov, publisher of the new private magazine says that the main goal of his outlet is to help the government institutions find solutions of problems the Tajik labor migrant are facing.

Apart from feature stories, the magazine introduces a number of legal documents regarding labor migration issues adopted in Tajikistan and other countries. The magazine also contains statistical data on various aspects of labor migration.

Migrant_tj also contains samples of labor certificates, migration cards and information on rates on services for migrants.
