

Mayor of Kulyab sent a TV journalist to win honor in sport battle

On 5-6 November, the Russian capital will be hosting the International Grand Prix Finale of the mountainous races tournament. Davlatali Shamsov, a TV journalist from Kulyab will take part in the competition.

The runner himself told NANSMIT's correspondent that the Mayor of Kulyab Khamid Abdulloyev helped arrange Shamsov's trip and participation in the prestigious competition in Moscow.

Davlatali Shamsov is not an amateur in sports. Earlier, in September he took part in a 10-kilometer marathon at the 31-st International Track-and-Field Athletics Championship in the city of Korolyov, Russia. He was the 33-rd who came to the finish ribbon among 3,600 participants of the marathon. The Mayor's office covered Tajik sportsman's travel expenses.
